

Eric Fuson is the Executive Director of the Albrecht-Kemper Museum of Art in St. Joseph, Missouri. He graduated from Missouri Western State University with a bachelor's degree in art and began teaching soon after. During a career in higher education spanning over thirty years he taught drawing, design, illustration, painting, photography, graphic design, art history and sculpture. As the artistic director of the Walter Cronkite Memorial, he guided the overall design and creation of exhibits. His personal artwork incorporates painting, drawing and sculpture and is in collections across the country. Currently he is creating a memorial in honor of local firefighters.